

Moving Checklist

If you've sold and found your new home, you should be considering the following:

Set up a moving file: keep your paperwork and important numbers together

Appoint a conveyancing solicitor

Arrange a valuation survey through your lender

Appoint an RICS surveyor to conduct a structural survey

6 Weeks before you move

Start to clear out cupboards; organise your loft, shed and garage

Find your local Reliable British Association of Removers Company

Get quotes for your removal

Confirm parking restrictions and access for a large removal vehicle

1 month before you move

Regular solicitor updates for news of exchange

Accept a removal quote and check availability

Need storage? Ask your mover!

Get boxes and start packing non essentials

Notify the relevant utility providers: now is a good time to compare

2 weeks before you move

Confirm your date with your removal company

Plan childcare / petcare for moving day

Run down your freezer food and dispose of old paint and flammables

Put aside medication and keep important documents in a safe place

Book overnight accommodation if your journey is a long one

1 week before your move

Pack and label your boxes: your removal company can do this for you

Collate all important documents

Pack an overnight bag for your first night in your new home

Gather and label your keys for the current house

Re-direct your post to your new home

1 day before your move

Get all your valuables and essentials in a safe place.

Charge your phone!

If you haven't done so already, pay for your removal

Contact your solicitor and discuss the moving day agenda

Establish who is disconnecting appliances and dismantling furniture

Speak to your neighbours and reserve parking for the removal truck

Drop a set of keys to your estate agent

Defrost your fridge and freezer

Moving day

It's finally here! Emotions can run high, so try keep calm and trust the professionals you have appointed.

Strip the beds and pack bedding and curtains

Identify fragile items and areas of concern to the removal crew leader

Record meter readings for water, electric and gas

Keep takeaway menus and a bottle of bubbly handy!

Call us for a free quote on: 0800 093 1990